Most prophetic commentators teach that verses fourteen through verse twenty describe, in a symbolic sense, the ultimate human battle at the end of the tribulation period called Armageddon.

Definition: Natural consequences from sin are the _____ _____ of disobedience to a divine principle or law.

Definition: Divine judgment on sin is a specific _____ _____ from God to punish someone(s) for wrongdoing.

This passage describes Jesus descending to the earth to judge the earth and its armies, and it describes that horrific judgment as a harvest. This text illustrates that judgment through two different harvests: the first is a _____ harvest (verses 14-16) and the second is a _____ harvest (verses 17-20).

The first harvest describes the final tribulation judgments referred to as the seven _____ judgments.
