verse fourteen (see screen)

Nebuchadnezzar had a problem and because Daniel served in his court, Nebuchadnezzar's problem then became Daniel's problem. Please notice Daniel's immediate response to that problem because his response is applicable to us in facing our own problems. Daniel's response to this demand and death announcement from Nebuchadnezzar consisted of two parts:

One... Daniel _____.

Definition: Panic is the sudden sensation of being afraid which is so strong that it dominates and prevents sound reason and logical thinking. It replaces them with overwhelming feelings of being frantic and anxious, consistent with an animalistic _____ or _____ reaction.
